

11. Non destructive inspection of foreign body of metal plate

The foreign body (about $10 \mu\text{m}$) is found by scanning a cube type sensor on the acrylic plate (thickness 1mm) put on the metal plate (thickness 0.5mm). The left sensor shown is used as a reference sensor, and the other scans once along each arrow.

